October 20, 2008

The Honorable Mary Peters
Secretary
U.S. Department of Transportation
1200 New Jersey Ave, SE
Washington, DC 20590
Attn: Docket DOT-OST-2008-0252

Dear Ms. Peters,

American Airlines – along with British Airways, Finnair, Iberia and Royal Jordanian Airlines, its transatlantic partners in the oneworld global alliance – recently applied to receive global antitrust immunity from the U.S. Department of Transportation. Immunity would mean the five airlines will continue to operate as separate legal entities – with their own fleets, employees and brands – but would be able co-operate more closely to improve travel choices, offer more convenient schedules, and give customers more opportunities to earn and redeem frequent flyer miles.

In addition to providing for more travel choices for our customers, immunity would allow oneworld to compete more effectively with SkyTeam and Star Alliance, which already enjoy broad immunity among their global air alliance members.

Sincerely yours,

Karen Tse
